

Dear Class of 2027

In advance of Induction Day tomorrow, I am delighted to share with you a welcome message from Mrs Oakley, Headteacher, Mr S Clissold, Director of Progress and Achievement, and our Head Boy and Head Girl. To view the message please click here

We know that tomorrow will be a day filled with mixed emotions and this is understandable. Please be reassured that your day will be a day full of fun activities allowing you opportunities to make new friends, find your way around the school site and see our school in action. Staff and students alike are very much looking forward to welcoming you to our wonderful school where you will be able to see for yourself the fantastic opportunities Wildern has to offer you.

The induction day timetable is here:

8:40 – 9:00	Arrive at Wildern (in your school uniform).	Please make your way to the Tennis courts. (Do not worry as staff and students will be around to show you the way).

Should you wish to purchase some of Chef Dan's wonderful food from the canteen at break time on the day please bring along approx. £2.50 in cash.

If you are lucky enough to meet Rufus, our school dog during the day, please make sure you go up and say 'hello' There is nothing he loves more than a nice ruffle of his fur as you go past. Rufus is very much looking forward to meeting you all!

In the evening you can then return from 5.30pm with your parents and show them around, introduce them to your tutor and find out all about our wonderful enrichment opportunities at the Freshers Fayre.

During the evening you and your parents will be able to purchase some of the delicious food that Chef Dan and his team prepare for us daily.

There will be plenty of staff and students around during the day tomorrow and evening to help point you in the right direction, and answer any questions you may have.

I am really looking forward to seeing you all tomorrow.

Yours sincerely

Mrs K Thomas
Senior Leader of Learning (Pastoral)
